Fifteen years of careful study of Communism equips us to analyze the subject. Many who read this have known us for years and are aware that this is an honest effort to preserve the United States from Red slavery. Communism has reached its position in this country by deception. Our purpose is to educate people to what Communism really is, written in plain words for plain people. We are non-partisan and non-sectarian, have no axes to grind. We have reliable up-to-date sources of information.

The Fight To Communize Spain

Qualifications For Supreme Court Justices

When the writer was growing up he always understood that a man who was to be placed on the Supreme Court had to be tops in every way and above reproach, for there the nine men sat as an inspiration to American manhood. Honorable, capable and stable, to render just decisions and deserve the highest respect of America.

Most of these have been strong men like Edward Douglas White and Charles Evans Hughes. Of course some of us do know that sworn testimony has connected Justice Brandeis with the COMMUNIST COMMONWEALTH COLLEGE at Mena, Arkansas twenty years ago.

During the last ten years some Supreme Court Justices have been appointed that are really placing the Supreme Court on the front page. The knock down and drag out between Associate Justice Jackson, now in Germany conducting the trials at Nurnberg, and Justice Black is interesting. The knock down and drag out between Black and Jackson has been better than the Louis-Conn bout, with no $100.00 seats. Jackson has not done so well for himself at Nurnberg—creating laws as he goes. Goering and others caused Jackson to look ridiculous. Many big lawyers believe that Jackson's brilliancy has been dulled much by his conduct there. He was a good manager of the SPEAKERS BUREAU for the Roosevelt campaign. It may not have been WHAT HE KNEW but WHO HE KNEW, however, he landed on the Supreme Court just in time to do some good in legalizing the GIFT of fifty battle ships to England while we were a NEUTRAL Nation.

Justice Black was a judge in the Police Court in Birmingham, Alabama when he heard the call to duty in Washington. He hid his bed sheet, cleared it with Sidney and came right up to the Capitol in 1937. Soon after, while he was in Europe, some unkind person let the cat out of the bag. WAS BLACK A KNIGHT OF THE BED SHEET? That really had the New Deal boys scratching their heads. They were visualizing eight of the Judges in Court wearing black robes and Justice Black covered with a white bed sheet. Some wise politicians did not think that arrangement would go over. Reporters met the boat when Justice Black landed from Europe. Some looked thru his baggage for a bed sheet and some were firing questions. Black sparred for time and at the hearing there were more questions. But, Black had his friends too, and the anxious folks did not ask the right questions. They asked if Black was a member of the KKK; but if he was, he knew that he had taken an oath always to deny that he was a member of the Ku Klux Klan. The question that should have been asked is: Are you a citizen of the INVISIBLE EMPIRE? They did not ask him if he knew Mr. KO POK, or if he was a member of the K DUO INNER CIRCLE. The Circle he was entitled to as a big shot. You guessed it—we have been around too!

But, Mr. Black got by—and now, Justice Jackson says Justice Black is not fit to sit on the high court, like an Umpire who threw the game. We don't know, but Justice Jackson should know. The Reds and Pinks like both Black and Jackson.

And while this is going on it is reported some of the Justices will resign if Jackson comes back. The Reds like Justice Murphy too, but it looks like he is sitting on a powder keg. Murphy had some special training for the Supreme Court similar to Justice Black when he sat as a Judge in the City Court of Detroit, Mich.. We understand he was vaccinated for a Catholic. However, how well it took we don't know. On the way up from City Judge he was in some Red company and some fast company. A Red crowd has been in power the last ten years, hence, Murphy could afford to be broad minded in order to go up the ladder.

We must not neglect Felix Frankfurter, for he has contributed in no small way to the fame of the Court, and has been a big help these last twelve years in placing his Harvard students as Key men in Government agencies and departments. After all, he should know the minds of these students; he helped to shape those minds. Dear David

COMMUNIST OATH DECLARATIONS

"I pledge myself to remain at all times a vigilant and firm defender of the Leninist line of the Party, the only line that insures the triumph of Soviet power in the United States".

By Felix Morley, Editor of Human Events

"The Spanish ulcer killed me", said Napoleon in one of his moments of reminiscence at St. Helena. Now another, not dissimilar, Spanish ulcer threatens Stalin's heretofore increasingly successful efforts to dominate and communize Europe.

By the "Spanish ulcer" Napoleon meant simply the proud and deeply religious conservatism of that ancient land. In 1808, despite the blunders and corruption of their rulers, these Spanish people rose to expel the French in what Herbert Fisher, the great English historian, has called "the first example of a long series of popular and national movements which ultimately shattered the Napoleonic Empire".

Today, the same dignity, the same poise, the same ingrained conservatism, have made of Spain a greater Rock of Gibraltar against which all the Communist machinations have broken in vain. The scheming of Moscow to overthrow Franco's unsavory rule by a planted revolution has been as Machiavellian, and almost as successful, as the steps whereby Napoleon contrived the downfall of the equally shameful Spanish monarchy in 1897. Then, as now, it was intelligent English diplomacy which operated to foil the plot. The chief difference in the historical parallel is that the Government of the United States, which preserved neutrality toward Napoleon's attack on Spain, has done much to assist Stalin's effort to absorb that nation.

At the eleventh hour, however, we have switched from our Russian to our British ally, with the result that the red tide in Russia may now, if we continue firm, begin to recede. But it was a near thing, and the efficacy, if not the very existence, of the United Nations Organization may prove to be the price of Stalin's loss of face.

II

Just ten years ago, on July 17, 1936, General Franco raised the standard of revolt against the Leftist Republican regime then in power at Madrid. Since then, so much water has gone down the Potomac that many Americans have forgotten the "plague on both your houses" attitude with which this ugly European complication was at first received in the United States. Balance is restored by recalling the objective judgement of the 1937 annual of the Council on Foreign Relations, entitled "The United States in World Affairs". Said this authoritative study:

"The conflict in Spain purported to be a civil war, and logically, therefore, the only correct course of conduct was for the rest of the world not to intervene. Unfortunately, however, neither Soviet

NILAS (now Niles), still Presidential advisor, owes his long success in the White House to Felix. They tell us if all Frankfurter's appointees had gone in the Army (where they did not go) they would have had a division of their own. It would have been the FFFP Division (Felix Frankfurter Pen Pushers Division). Frankfurter has been a very efficient lawyer. We remember some GOOD men he has helped. Back in May 1920, when Sacco and Vanzetti, the Anarchists, were up for murder at Braintree, Mass., the Reds from all over the world contributed to their defense. Felix Frankfurter was their right hand man. Seven times they were sentenced and seven times the Anarchists and Reds all over the world made demonstrations—but they were finally hanged.

Wm. Z. Foster was an Anarchist then, and on the job. Frankfurter had better luck later with fellows like Harry Bridges — Several times the courts ordered Harry deported as a Communist alien, and for five years efforts were made to send him back to Australia against Australia's wishes. But Felix was loyal to Harry and Harry is still with us, ready to call a Seamen's strike to prevent food from reaching Europe to check hunger, Stalin's most valuable asset. Sidney Hillman considered Frankfurter his best lawyer, even better than La Guardia. Hillman should be a good judge of a criminal lawyer. Experience is the best teacher.

We don't say Frankfurter is a RED CARD COMMUNIST — in fact we don't believe F.D.R. would have appointed him if that was a fact. When the Senate held the investigation at the time of his appointment Congress was not successful in proving that he was, even though many accused him of being one. He was cleared, even as well as Justice Black was cleared of the bed sheet connection.

THE OLD HIGH COURT AIN'T WHAT SHE USED TO BE MANY LONG YEARS AGO!

During the years Felix Frankfurter taught at Harvard, he surrounded himself with some GOOD friends. Of his many friends, DAVID NILAS and HAROLD LASKI, who taught there, were really his pals.

Some unkind persons called attention to the coincident that while Harold Laski, chairman of the British Labor Party, was pushing England $\frac{3}{4}$ of the way into Stalin's lap, Felix Frankfurter was coordinating as the Master Mind of the Administration in Washington, during the past ten years.

Apparently Frankfurter and Laski, are a good team like F.D.R. and Winnie. We are wondering what Justice Frankfurter thought of the statement his old team mate, Harold Laski, made in a speech last month. We quote, "TO THOSE WHO SAY WE HAVE TO CHOOSE, AS I DO NOT BELIEVE WE HAVE TO CHOOSE, BETWEEN THE SOVIET UNION AND THE UNITED STATES, WITH ITS PASSION FOR FREE ENTERPRISE WHICH IS NOT FREE AND IS NOT ENTERPRISE, WE, THE LABOR PARTY, STAND FOUR SQUARE BEHIND THE SOVIET UNION!" So it looks like the High Court has not increased in dignity the last ten years.

One judges a tree by its fruit and a Court by its decisions. The decision of the Court on June 3rd, is food for thought. It declared UNCONSTITUTIONAL the action of the Congressional Legislative body in cutting off salaries of three Federal Employees, because of their RED SUBMERS-

IVE ACTIVITIES. The three Government employees were GOODWIN B. WATSON, MORRIS LOVETT and WILLIAM E. DODD, Jr., formerly of the Federal Communications Commission.

From this it appears that once a RUSSIAN FIRSTER gets on the Federal payroll it will take an Atomic Bomb to get him off.

Some time back we heard much about packing the Supreme Court and it appears now that it was packed. All of these agencies and bureaus are due to go thru the washing machine—O.P.A., Supreme Court, and the State Department alike. We hope that no HAMMERS AND SICKLES get caught in the washing machine.

SHADWELL SAID: Communism is the most poisonous doctrine ever poured into the ears of men. (T.N.T.p.40).

BY UPTON CLOSE

During the past week there has been a flood of speeches and articles exposing and condemning Communism. The Commander of the American Legion and the Massachusetts Veterans of Foreign Wars have taken the lead. Some of our most flagrant New Dealers are trying to wash themselves white by warning against the Reds. Attorney General Clark made a resounding speech against anti-Americanism. Then the Attorney General himself discounted it in a following talk on the air by toadying to the Leftists with the statement which was not at all necessary for him to make, that: "Not all Leftists are Communists." That "cover" or "softener" is so helpful to Communists that they themselves put it out.

Ralph Ingersoll, publisher of PM, is imploring help to keep that scurrilous sheet alive, implying that Marshall Field is leaving it high and dry. Field's Chicago Sun is turning American—it actually attacked Justice Frankfurter editorially. Pinko and pro-Russian commentators have, according to the latest Hooper rating, lost so much of their listening audiences that they are scarcely worth their keep to their sponsors. An ordinary commentator rating is between 4 and 8; a good rating is from 8 to 12. These figures indicate the number of radio sets out of one hundred tuned in to a given program at the moment when the Hooper girls conduct their telephone polls in the selected number of cities where Dr. Hooper operates.

Here are some latest ratings: Raymond Swing, 1.8; William Shirer, 2.5; Cecil Brown, 2.8; Bob Trout, 2.6; Gabriel Heater, 3.4. Against this the rating for the Tuesday night Upton Close program — opposite Bob Hope — is 3.9. It came up 1.6 while all the others dropped. It must be taken into reckoning that we have only a 250-watt suburban station in the entire New York metropolitan area, due to the refusal of Mutual Broadcasting System's proper outlet, WOR, to carry the program. WOR thinks it is un-American — WOR's definition of un-American apparently being "un-Soviet". We understand this attitude comes from officials of Macy's in New York, which owns WOR. Of course, Dr. Hooper reckons, in figuring our rating, the enormous metropolitan population of New York which can equal the population of the 64 other areas that get this program. Therefore, it would be safe to say that, if we had a 50,000 watt New York outlet, our rating would be between 7 and 8. The full network Upton Close program which closed on Mutual one year ago had a rating between 6 and 8—they vary from week to week. The rating of the Sheaffer Pen-Upton Close program on NBC was between 10 and 12 when that broadcasting company forced the sponsor to give it up.

RADIO IS THE CLOCK

This will give you an idea of our present radio program's success. But, more than that, it clocks the failing grip of Leftism among the Nation's radio listeners. Radio listening is the best barometer of trends in this or any other nation today. It is far more reliable than the Gallup Poll. He who has the radio ear of the masses is master of their opinions in our modern life.

Russia, nor Italy, nor the German Reich regarded the internal war in Spain as a local matter. Soviet Russia saw a promising new extension of Communism threatened by General Franco's insurrection. Hitler correspondingly found in him an ally, and Mussolini discovered in the situation a chance to increase the prestige of Italy and her dominion over the Middle Sea."

Existing neutrality legislation, at the outbreak of the Spanish Civil War, applied only to wars "between or among" foreign States. Nevertheless, the Department of State, on August 7, 1936, made public its emergency instructions to all our consular and diplomatic representatives in Spain, which read in part:

"... in conformity with its well-established policy of non-interference with internal affairs in other countries ... this government will, of course, scrupulously refrain from any interference whatsoever in the unfortunate Spanish situation."

That this conformed with American public opinion was made abundantly clear as soon as the newly-elected Congress met, on January 5, 1937. The very next day it adopted a joint resolution, passed unanimously by the Senate and signed with alacrity by President Roosevelt, forbidding the export of arms, ammunition and implements of war "for the use of either of the opposing forces in Spain".

Aggravated by continuous Nazi, Fascist and Communist intervention, the Spanish Civil War spread devastation until Franco's military victory, early in 1939. His Government was recognized as the 'de jure' government of Spain by France and Great Britain on February 27, 1939, and by the Roosevelt Administration a few weeks later. Since then, both the United States and Great Britain have maintained this recognition.

III

The Kremlin has a longer memory than the American public. The latter was, and for the most part probably still is, allergic to the triumph of either Leftist or Rightest totalitarianism in Spain. But Moscow, smarting under the liquidation of Spanish Communism, has seemingly made the establishment of a Red Iberia (first Spain, then Portugal) a major objective of its post-war policy.

In this wholly understandable effort — a Spanish Soviet Republic would mean the permanent communization of Western Europe — Stalin has utilized many innocent Americans as his dupes. While some have seen the picture dispassionately, few have dared publicly to discount the picture of "Fascist Franco" which is so easy to portray. An honorable exception is Alexander Weddell, experienced career diplomat who served as Ambassador to Spain from 1939 to 1942. In a speech in Richmond, on June 25, Mr. Weddell called Franco's Government "bad", but said that if the United Nations overthrows him:

"... it will plunge innocent people into another ferocious civil war and make the country a breeding ground for Communistic ideology."

Lacking access to diplomatic archives, it cannot be charged with assurance that Stalin joined the United Nations Organization partly to use it as a lever to establish a Communist Spain. But surface indication points toward that conclusion. Although there is no scintilla of evidence to show that the Franco Government is at the moment a threat to world peace, the Kremlin has cleverly engineered a policy of having this vulnerable regime perpetually attacked, and if possible diplomatically ostracized and overthrown, through the agency of UN. In this subtle procedure the puppet government of Poland has been utilized as Russia's stooge, drawing from Winston Churchill the caustic observation:

"... there is as much freedom in Spain under the Franco regime and a good deal more security and happiness for ordinary folk, than there is in Poland at this time."

While the British, with their better understanding of European problems, were from the outset alert to the overtones of Stalin's anti-Franco drive, our official contribution during several critical months was to play the Communist game. Thus the Department of State, on March 4 of this year, released to the press a most tendentious selection of documents carefully culled to prove Franco's wartime subserviency to the Axis. Russia promptly cited these in support of the resolution demanding collective intervention in Spain, which the Polish delegate introduced in the Security Council on April 17.

It may be noted that the Department of State, in "screening" the Spanish documents so as to inflame American public opinion against Franco, let one of contrary purport slip through the mesh. This was a minuted conversation, dated December 15, 1943, in which the German Ambassador to Spain criticized Franco for being pro-Ally and told him that this was "a very dangerous policy for Spain". Few, if any, American newspapers, however, picked out that part of this single document.

IV

It was less than two months ago, after bombing diplomacy had stumbled to the very edge of the abyss, that wise counsels in the Department of State forced a change from the previously pronounced subservience to Stalin's policy. And it is no mere coincidence that Russian venom against the United States, now made clear in one form or another almost daily, began to be officially sponsored with this change in our attitude. A Communist Spain is very important to Russia's long-range plans, and for the United States to have blocked this on the verge of achievement is, in the eyes of Moscow, an unforgivable offense.

Nevertheless, the Russian policy has been blocked, and largely by American action in the Security Council of UN. First of all, we joined in a refusal to pass the Polish Resolution, calling for immediate intervention in Spain. Instead, we backed the appointment of a subcommittee which was unable to define Franco as a threat to world peace; which found no evidence of atomic research in Spain; and which recommended passing the buck on the whole issue to the next meeting of the United Nations General Assembly, scheduled for September 3.

It was at this point that Russian irritation became suspiciously intense, culminating in the disgraceful Security Council session of June 26, ironically enough the first anniversary of the adoption of the San Francisco Charter. At this session, Delegate Gromyko invoked the veto power no less than three times, drawing from Australian Delegate Evatt the remark that clearly: "The veto will be exercised ... until the only proposal left is the proposal that Mr. Gromyko supports."

That, however, is not quite the case. The Russians seemingly have cut off their nose to spite their face. Gromyko's wanton use of the veto has certainly proved that the United Nations is of dubious efficiency as compared with the discarded League of Nations. But it has also prevented, by Russia's own action, any formal international condemnation of Franco which might have positive effect in unseating him. The whole episode, unfortunately, would seem to have strengthened this dictator's position.

It is not the Communist custom to regard no bread as better than half a loaf. So

Think-Weekly,
Newark, New Jersey
Gentlemen:-

I thank you for sending me a few copies of your paper and I want to congratulate you in your hard task in front of you.

Any way, it makes me feel good to know that there are some Americans who have the courage to go out and deliver the facts and the truth.

Do not get discouraged, it will take hard work and patience and somebody must do that job, otherwise we certainly would go down fast.

Enclosed is $10.00 to help in your work.
Sincerely yours,
S. H.

BY WILLIAM Z. FOSTER, PRESIDENT OF COMMUNIST PARTY OF AMERICA

"The Communist is unscrupulous in his choice of weapons. He allows no consideration of legality, religion, patriotism, honor, duty, etc., to stand in the way of his adoption of effective tactics".

A LITERARY GEM

Langston Hughes of the Political Action Committee and a writer for "Daily Worker", gives us a Communist literary gem:

"GOODBY CHRIST:
"Listen, Christ. You did all right in your day, I reckon
But that day is gone now.
They ghosted you up a swell story, too,
Call it Bible, but it is dead now.
The popes and the preachers have made too much money from it;
You ain't no good no more; they've pawned
you

Till you done worn out.
Goodby, Christ Jesus, Lord God Jehovah,
Beat it away from here now,
Make way for a new guy with no religion
at all,
A real guy named Marx, communist; Lenin, peasant; Stalin, worker; ME.
Go ahead on now and step on the gas, Christ.
The world is mine from now on; move,
don't be so slow about movin',
And nobody's goin' to sell me to a king or a general or a millionaire."

This is an example of the thousands of Communist books and papers that are circulating around America. And some may wonder why we refer to these characters as "Red Rats".

The question of why this negative attitude was finally chosen in respect to Franco is mysterious—unless Russian plans call for an upheaval in Spain prior to the September date to which the majority of the Council sought to defer the issue as a compromise measure.

Your Answer is 5c For This Little Paper - Plan Starts This Week

We asked for your ideas on financing this educational campaign and we received many replies in favor of a price of five cents. The readers and distributors do not want to be bothered with pennies. They would rather pay 5c and let the extra few cents help pay for the cost of giving away thousands of free samples in new territories.

Last week we explained to you that we had put up a large amount of money during the past ten weeks in our effort to assist THINK-WEEKLY to become self-supporting. We also explained that we were not able to take care of the loss and continue to give away free copies much longer.

The subscriptions and contributions received are a great encouragement but so far we have not received a sufficient amount of money to cover the cost of printing and postage alone.

So here is our plan which we have adopted at your suggestion: THE PRICE OF THINK-WEEKLY WILL BE 5c. We will hand the paper to anyone without payment but the price is 5c to those who wish to pay our distributors. The profit will be used to spread our cause and to circulate thousands of sample copies into new territories.

Our distributors will give THINK-WEEKLY away in new areas to acquaint the public with the paper and to allow them time to mail in their subscriptions. At the end or four weeks we will ask the people to purchase the paper for 5c.

THINK-WEEKLY belongs to all true patriots who wish to use it in helping deliver our government back into the hands of the real Americans.

To any subscriber who wishes to give away more copies of THINK-WEEKLY each week we will be glad to forward them on request. America means as much to true Americans as it does to us and therefore spreading the truth is everyone's job.

Communism has thousands of rich men in America who are backing Red Fronts with real money. These men are millionaires whose names we have on record. We make it plain that every dollar we receive in any way is used entirely in this campaign of education.

HERE IS HOW YOU CAN HELP YOUR CAMPAIGN FOR SAVING AMERICA

Buy a copy from our distributor for 5c.

Send us a year's subscription.

Mail us a check for what you can afford.

Speak to your friends about THINK-WEEKLY.

So we can spread this campaign faster by giving out more free papers.

Turn the government back to the citizens who are for AMERICA FIRST and not RUSSIA FIRST.

COMMUNIST BLASPHEMY

Russia through her world wide political organization teaches hatred for God.

Children in Russia and countries controlled by Russia are taught such hymns as this. They will teach these to your children here in the United States unless you stop them. No wonder Andrei Gromyko at the U.N. meetings before last Good Friday stated that he did not know the meaning of Good Friday. He, the Ambassador of his country, so ignorant of the things concerning God.

"The whole world at last is beginning to see
The blight of the world is Jesus.
Keep out the blight or blighted you'll be;
Blighted for life by credulity.
Once I believed but now I can see
The blight of the world is Jesus."

LENIN AND MARX

Nicoli Lenin was always an ardent follower of the doctrines and philosophy of Carl Marx, however, on few occasions Lenin disagreed. It is true that Marx once said that there were certain countries such as the United States and England in which the workers may hope to secure their ends by peaceful means.

In Lenin's book "The State and the Revolution" he disagreed with Marx in the following statement:

"Today, in 1917, in the epoch of the first great imperialist war, this distinction of Marx's becomes unreal, and England and America, the greatest and last representatives of Anglo-Saxon 'liberty,' in the sense of the absence of militarism and bureaucracy, have today completely rolled down into the dirty, bloody morass of military-bureaucratic institutions common to all Europe, subordinating all else to themselves. Today, both in England and America, the preliminary condition of any real people's revolution is the breakup, the shattering of the available ready machinery of the State."

DO YOU WANT TO HELP EDUCATE?

Some of our readers no doubt would enjoy giving out one hundred or one thousand of these little weapons against Communism.

You would like to see them given out each week in factories or any place where men meet, so that good men would have some argument against the Red propaganda being used by clever Communists planted in the organizations. You don't have the time to give these away or you don't know where to go or that is out of your line.

Here is where we can make it possible for you to help in this crusade against pagan Communism. Veterans and Union men are ready to give these away where they will do good. Thousands of working men are fighting Red ideas in their Unions and Veteran Organizations. If you send us a check for $5, 10, $25 or $100.00 it will be used to pay for these papers. The work putting them out is contributed.

IT IS TIME TO DRIVE THESE RED RATS OUT OF AMERICA.
